ADMISSIONS

- Mr. Schenck is a member of the State Bar and is admitted to practice before all
California state courts and federal courts in California.

Matthew Schenck specializes in complex litigation representing employers, universities and health care organizations in matters in state and federal courts and before administrative agencies. He is an accomplished commercial litigator having represented public and private entities in resolving complex business disputes, including both employment and health care-related cases. He has handled cases involving the False Claims Act, trade secrets, covenants not to compete, antitrust, fraud, wage and hour, wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment claims and medical billing disputes. He has achieved notable results in defending against qui tam lawsuits and in using the California anti-SLAPP statute against meritless claims.

Mr. Schenck also has substantial experience as an advocate in alternative dispute resolution proceedings, including arbitration of multi-million dollar disputes.

In addition to his litigation practice, Mr. Schenck advises and counsels clients, with an emphasis on preventing litigation.
