

Karin K. Sherr

Associate

ksherr@paulplevin.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Paul, Plevin, Sullivan & Connaughton LLP; Associate, August 2010 – Present
- Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, Associate, May 2005 - August 2010
- Clerk, U.S. District Court, Southern District, Honorable William McCurine, Jr.

EDUCATION

- Washington & Lee University School of Law, J.D., 2003
- Miami University, M.S. Family and Child Studies, 2000
- Miami University, B.A. Political Science, Spanish, 1999, magna cum laude

ADMISSIONS

- Ms. Sherr is licensed to practice in all state and federal courts in the state of California

Karin Sherr represents employers in all aspects of labor and employment law, including employment discrimination, disability law, wage and hour class actions, wrongful discharge, retaliation and compliance matters. Ms. Sherr has successfully represented employers in a broad range of employment matters at both the trial and appellate levels in state and federal court. She has assisted employers with claims ranging from administrative charges and single plaintiff lawsuits to large wage and hour class actions. Ms. Sherr has an array of litigation experience, including law and motion practice, oral argument, all phases of discovery, mediation, arbitrations, and trial preparation.

Ms. Sherr advises clients about federal and state employment laws that affect the employment relationship, including the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title VII, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, and other state and federal statutes. She has drafted employee handbooks and personnel policies, as well as employment, severance, and settlement agreements for clients.

Ms. Sherr has extensive experience handling wage and hour litigation, including numerous class actions.

PUBLICATIONS

- Celebrating the FEHA's 50th Anniversary: A Review of the Most Significant Cases. California Labor & Employment Bulletin, January 2009.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- San Diego County Bar Association